#free_to_act

Our firm has a significant experience in various public law cases. We have represented our clients before all courts, including the Council of the State and the Chamber of Accounts.

Taking into account this experience, our clients can feel confident that they will receive legal services of a high level for their benefit.

Having represented both individuals and Public Entities, inter alia the Unified Association of the Municipalities and Communities of the Prefecture of Attica and the District of Sterea Ellada, our firm has a spherical understanding of the legal issues arising in each case and the way they are taken into consideration by the court.

Indicatively, our firm has experience in the following cases:

- tax law cases
 - social security law cases
 - recovery of public funds (fiscal corrections)
 - charges against public accountables
 - various cases involving cancellation of administrative acts (including cases of environmental law)
 - actions for damages and in general involving non-contractual liability of the State and Public Entities.
